ANDERSON'S BRACE WAS EFFECTIVE

NDERSON, Ind., Feb. 1.-Anderson pulled Marion down to-night 5 to 1, scoring all her goals in the last period. Jean's tear looked like winners at the start. The visit ing captain took care of Wodtke in th early stages of the play, but the Dutchman found his speed in the last and was in evi dence. In the middle of the second period Mallory was compelled to leave the floor of account of a sprained knee, which he got i a hard fall blocking Lewis. Flahaven, a amateur, took his place and played a per fect goal. Anderson took a wonderft brace, the defense of Miller and Gardne being the best ever witnessed on the floor Marion sent over a large delegation that coted royally till Anderson began scoring Lewis played second rush during the last Jason. period. Mercer was back at rush and Mallory will probably be able to play to-mor- Jason.

Richmond Here To-Night.

Richmond is the attraction here to-night The game between Indianapolis and Richmond which was to have been played in this city on last Tuesday was postponed owing to the fact that the Quakers were unable to reach Indianapolis in time for the start of the game. Richmond will be here high individual score. The scores follow: in plenty of time for to-night's contest. The amateur game will be between two of the fastest teams in the Commercial League. The Kahns and Habichs will contest, and a hard-fought game is expected.

RESULTS OF GAMES IN EAST END LEAGUE

The Volunteer and Capitol clubs of the East End Bowling League won straight games from the Florodoras and W. O. W.'s in last night's series. Heller, of the Capitols, dumped 210 pins for the high individual score. Hereth, of the Volunteers, was second with 208. Only two 200 scores were rolled. The scores follow:
